In the connected writ petition W.P.(Crl.) 144 of 2007 filed by Fiona Charley, we have already passed appropriate orders. In the light of the directions issued in the above said case, there should not be any harassment meted out to the petitioners. However, this will not stand in the way of the police investigating any crime in accordance with law and in case the presence of the petitioner is required, that will be done by issuing a written notice.

The writ petition is closed.
